Fall Concert: "Grainger, Gould, Giroux and Grgin"

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 2025, 3:00 PM

Pre-Concert Talk 30 minutes prior to performance

Conductor Phil Sanborn

Charlie Suriyakham
Clarinet

The concert begins with Percy Grainger's Children's March in Australia, followed by a journey to Lincolnshire, England, where Grainger recorded folk music for his collection Lincolnshire Posy. After intermission, Morton Gould's American Salute reminds us that the only place a soldier wants to be is home while in Jericho we can actually hear the walls "come tumblin' down." Riften Wed by Julie Giroux set in a video game universe provides a unique twist. The concert then shifts to Belgrade, Serbia, where Ante Grgin's Concertino for Clarinet, performed by clarinetist Charlie Suriyakham, promises a dynamic and captivating musical experience for the audience.
